

Effective Communication

Workshop

How to Communicate Your Big Idea to Improve Safety

JUNE 6

FCS
705 Oakwood St,
Ravenna, OH,
Room 101.

10:00 AM
to
11:30 AM

This free training will cover:

- How to structure your communications by using mental models and conceptual frameworks to increase clarity and buy-in.
- How to avoid communicating too much too soon and losing people’s attention.
- A simple 3-step strategy to communicate more effectively and produce better results.
- 6 proven ways to make your ideas “stick.”

This training is ideal for:

- Anyone who is looking to communicate more effectively.
- Anyone who is trying to sell their idea formally or informally to others.
- Managers that struggle to get employees to buy into their safety program.
- Managers who struggle to sell their safety suggestions to executives.

Registration required by May 31, 2024. Click here to register.

Get your seat today!

About the Trainer: Mike Thompson is a seasoned leader with more than 15 years of experience in the non-profit industry and nearly 12 years in safety. He has a Master’s of Business Administration degree from American Intercontinental University and is a certified Workplace Stability, Global Priority Solutions, and Bridges Out of Poverty Trainer. Through the years, Mike has helped coach hundreds of people through tough and traumatic circumstances and now leverages that experience to help organizations become safer places to work. He has served as the Portage County Safety Council coordinator since 2012.